Hi Emily,

I have a situation where two sisters, who live together, were pregnant at the same time and enrolled in ATA, separately.

The first sister has maxed out her housing assistance (3 assists since Feb) and now the other sister would like to start requesting assistance. I want to run this by you first because I know in federal housing programs, all the people who live within a home are a household; but I wasn't sure if that was how I should regard this particular situation.

Let me know:)

Thanks! Megan
